TUNIS ROMEIN III, Ph.D.

Birth: 28 Nov 1945 - Boston, Massachusetts
Death: 01 Sep 2009 - Charleston, South Carolina
Interment: Due West Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church
Cemetery, Due West, South Carolina

Announcement of Funeral Service

Tunis Romein III, PhD CHARLESTON - The relatives and friends of Tunis Romein III, PhD, are invited to attend his funeral services Friday at four-thirty o'clock in Lightsey Chapel at Charleston Southern University. The family will receive friends in Lightsey Chapel between three and four-thirty o'clock. Burial will take place, Saturday at one o'clock at Due West Associate Reformed Presbyterian Churchyard, Due West, SC. Memorials may be made to Due West Associate Reformed Presbyterian Churchyard Cemetery Association, P.O. Box 397, Due West, SC 29639 and or Charleston Southern University, Choral Ensemble, 9200 University Blvd., North Charleston, SC 29406. Published in Charleston Post & Courier on Sep. 4, 2009.

Obituary

Tunis Romein III, PhD, of Charleston, died on the afternoon of September 1, 2009.

Born November 28, 1945 in Boston, MA, he was the son of Tunis Romein II, PhD and Sarah "Sally" Harris Romein.

He did his Under Graduate work in 1968 at Erskine College and received his Masters from the University of Georgia in 1970 and completed his Doctoral Degree from the University of Texas in 1978.

Dr. Romein served faithfully and diligently as a professor of English for 30 years at Baptist College at Charleston, later named Charleston Southern University. He attained the rank of Tenured Professor of English and was a valued member of the CSU family where he was the recipient of the Faculty Service Award in 1991 and the Excellence in Teaching Award in 1992.

He is survived by his daughter: Shelley Elizabeth Romein of Charleston; two sisters: Libby Bartley of Hodges, SC and Vandy Smith of Cowpens, SC; two brothers: Charles Bruce Romein of Sharon, SC and David Romein of Goose Creek.

Interment was in Due West Associate Reformed Presbyterian Churchyard, Due West.